Ep 00 feat. David Johnston

Published July 5th 2022

- Bonus episode in English
- Interview with David Johnston, serial tech entrepreneur and early contributor to the blockchain ecosystem since 2012. In May of 2013 he co-founded the first angel investment group in crypto, BitAngels, and in August of that year served as a Foundation board member to the first ever token sale – Mastercoin. In December of 2013 he authored “The General Theory of Decentralized Applications,” which defined the “DApp” term for the industry.
